

Half-day,
free-entry
group excursions

MAKE FRIENDS
LOVE LONDON
LEARN ENGLISH

Hyde Park

Hyde Park is London's biggest Royal Park. Sit by the lake, visit the Serpentine Gallery, listen to the people talk at Speaker's Corner or just relax. Whatever you do, it's a beautiful place to be.

*Hyde Park Corner,
Piccadilly Line
Marble Arch, Lancaster
Gate and Queensway
stations, Central Line
Zone 1*

Natural History Museum

The Natural History Museum has a variety of different exhibitions all centred around, you guessed it, history! In a spectacular building, it is one of London's oldest museums and in the winter you can go ice-skating in the garden.

*Knightsbridge
Piccadilly Line
Zone 1*

Science Museum

Right next door to the Natural History Museum is the Science Museum. It charts the growth of technology through recent times and displays all kinds of old and new inventions. It has great interactive exhibitions for teenagers.

*Knightsbridge
Piccadilly Line
Zone 1*

Shopping on Oxford Street

Everybody's favourite shopping street in London! With famous stores from end to end, there's no way that you won't be able to find something you want to buy here!

*Oxford Circus
Central, Victoria and Bakerloo Lines
Zone 1*

South Bank

The South Bank is one of the most vibrant parts of London. It is bursting with creativity; full of art galleries, theatres, concert halls and restaurants, not to mention the famous London Eye! It's a great place to walk and if you go far enough you will even be able to see Tower Bridge.

*Waterloo Station
Bakerloo, Northern and Jubilee Lines
Zone 1*

Greenwich

Greenwich is home to the Meridian Line, which marks the time zones around the world. There's also the Cutty Sark - a famous boat, and the maritime museum where you can learn about Britain's Naval History.

*Greenwich Station,
Docklands Light Railway
Zone 2*